

NARRATOR

Here to assist me by demonstrating the rubber ball's many uses is Horace.

(ON SCREEN)

HORACE waves unenthusiastically.

NARRATOR (CONT'D)

Number One. The first, and likely most obvious way to use your rubber ball is to toss it up into the air.

(ON SCREEN)

HORACE tosses the ball up and lets it fall to the floor.

(annoyed)

One might even endeavour to catch it again on its way back down.

(ON SCREEN)

This time, HORACE tosses the ball up and catches it as it falls.

Number Two. Bounce it.
There are several ways to bounce a rubber ball.
You might bounce it on the ground.

(ON SCREEN)

HORACE bounces the ball once on the ground and catches it.

You might bounce it against the wall.

(ON SCREEN)

HORACE bounces the ball against the wall and catches it.

Or, if you were feeling particularly saucy, you might bounce it against both ground and wall all in one go.
